Social Events

- Octoberfest, organized by Amelia Fisher and Catherine MacDonald, was held Sept. 27-29. Carol Abbott, a new member, described the event as being so great that she and others will be returning next year.
- September TGIF was at The Ship Victory. The Narrow's Bistro in the Doubletree Hotel on Wyse Road will be the venue for the TGIF on October 18 starting at 5 pm.
- Nov. 2 The 25th annual Scotch Doubles Pool Tournament takes place at Dooley's in Dartmouth and is being organized by Bob and Jo-An. $15 a person, no skill required and free pizza and prizes. Last chance to sign up will be at the TGIF on Oct. 18
- The Christmas dance won't take place this year because of last year's low attendance. The current thought is to use the TGIF in December as a Christmas social with the dates moved up to either Dec 6 or 13. Members were asked if they would be interested in doing something after such as attending the dance at the Newfoundland Club. 2 expressed interest.

November Guest Speaker

- Charlie from Aerobics First will be speaking about new ski gear.

Open Forum

- Shannon Gough thanked members for their support of her 50 km bike ride to raise funds for the QE11 Foundation Ride for Cancer.
- Michelle Goueffic invited members to attend Triumph Over Adversity, a celebration of mental health through music and stand-up comedy. The show takes place Oct. 11 from 6:30 - 8:30 at Son Life Church, 252 Windmill Road in Dartmouth with proceeds going to the Dartmouth Shelter Society. There are only 125 seats in the church. Tickets are $15.
- Eric Jordan encouraged everyone, especially new members, to attend the pool tournament and to circulate/chat more with each other at the TGIFs.

50-50 Draw

- The draw was not available this month.

Motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Clive MacGregor and seconded by Jim Hoyle.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm
